

CASACOR / MIAMI

ALBERTO SALABERRI

My passion in life has been acting and interior design. I devoted fifteen years working for Televisa in Mexico City and then Univision in Miami. Three years ago, I set up Palm Beach Home Style. This new venture would be my opportunity to develop as an interior designer in the area. Bamboo furniture and rattan accessories are a trademark in my projects. My passion for design offered me the opportunity to collaborate with renowned New York designer Philip Gorrivan in the Kips Bay showhouse in Palm Beach, the most important interior design show in the United States.
