

EDGE COLLECTIONS

EDGE Collections, established in 2009, is a Miami-based design and manufacturing house that specializes in custom artistic surfaces including wallpapers, tiles, and textiles. Founded by Carl Pascuzzi and Phoebe St. Germain Fellows, EDGE works to create projects and installations for residential, hospitality, museum, exhibition, public art and private collections. Their work fuses multiple layers of original imagery that create narratives of a fantasy life; one in which elegance, symmetry, objets d'art and nostalgia go hand in hand. Their large scale installations have recently been included in Venice Design, during the 15th Venice Architecture Biennale, The Wolfsonian, Miami Beach and SCOPE 2017. Their list of collaborations includes Rockwell Group, Starwood Resorts, Van Cleef & Arpels, Neiman Marcus, Google, Fiat North America, The European Cultural Center, AT&T and various architects, artists, designers, and tastemakers.
