

GUARDINI STANCATI INTERIOR DESIGN

Partners since 1998, the Brazilian architects and interior designers Dani Guardini and Adriano Stancati started GUARDINI STANCATI INTERIOR DESIGN in Campinas, SP – Brazil and have been developing architecture and interior design consulting projects for 20 years. Together they managed more than 1.000 projects with budgets up to $200 million. In 2014 they started their international career by winning an international contest to design all factories and offices projects for Lenovo around the world. With an office in Sunny Isles Beach, FL, GUARDINI STANCATI INTERIOR DESIGN has been expanding their international career developing projects for R9 Ronaldo Academy, Motorola, Strikers Soccer Team and residential projects in Sunny Isles, Aventura, Miami Beach, Key Largo, Delray, and Boca Raton.

Being free for creating without the commitment to trendiness's GUARDINI STANCATI INTERIOR DESIGN delivers a new exquisite and functional layout in every job. "We are not attached to a specific style and develop our projects free from pre-concepts. New solutions and technologies are widely used oriented by our client's needs, lifestyle and profile".

Since 2005 they participate in the most famous show houses exhibitions in Brazil, such as Casa Cor, and have been collecting more than 30 prizes, including the best project in Casa Cor Campinas, 2009, 2013, 2014, 2016; Luxaflex Talent, 2008, 2014, 2015; Lafarge Gypsun, 2009, 2011, 2015.

